CITY COUNCIL WORKSHOP

September 4, 2012

Call to Order
Mayor Carolyn Cutler called the September 4, 2012 City Council Workshop to order at 5:30 p.m. in the Council Chambers at 1290 South Public Road, Lafayette, Colorado.

Those in attendance were Mayor Cutler, Mayor Pro Tem Steve Kracha and Councilors Pete d'Oro nzio, Brad Wiesley, Alexandra Lynch, Staci Lupberger and Christine Berg.

Also present were City Administrator Gary Klaphake, Acting Police Chief Brian Rosipajla, Deputy City Clerk Susan Barker, City Attorney Dave Williamson, Curt Cheesman Recreation and Facility Management Director, Community Development Director Phillip Patterson, Planner Roger Caruso, Colorado Oil and Gas Conservation Commission Permitting Manager Thom Kerr and Marc Morton the Local Government Liaison from the Colorado Oil and Gas Conservation Commission.

Hydraulic Fracturing
Phillip Patterson introduced Mr. Kerr, Permitting Manager and Mr. Morton, Local Government Liaison from the COGCC. Mr. Patterson said that he is the Local Government Designee of Lafayette.

Colorado Oil and Gas Conservation Commission Permitting Manger Kerr spoke about the history of area oil and gas exploration, extraction regulations and timelines for permitting a new well. He described the hydraulic Fracturing process (also known as "fracking") and how other communities regulate gas and oil extraction.

City Planner Caruso presented information about property rights and common oil and gas operation questions, along with maps showing the locations of currently producing wells within the city limits, and inside or just outside the City's Urban Growth Boundary.

Council asked questions of Mr. Kerr and Staff. They discussed the City's extraction rules and regulations and reviewed the wells identified within and near the city limits.

Adjournment
Mayor Cutler adjourned the workshop at 7:59 p.m.
