CITY OF LAFAYETTE
CITY COUNCIL WORKSHOP

June 17, 2013

Call to Order
Mayor Carolyn Cutler called the June 17, 2013 City Council Workshop to order at 5:35 p.m. in the Council Chambers at 1290 South Public Road in Lafayette, Colorado.

Those in attendance were Mayor Carolyn Cutler, Mayor Pro Tem Steve Kracha and Councilors Staci Lupberger, Alexandra Lynch, Christine Berg, Brad Wiesley and Pete d'Oronzio.

Also present were City Administrator Gary Klaphake, City Engineer Peter Johnson, Public Works Director Doug Short, City Attorney Dave Williamson, Police Chief Rick Bashor, and City Clerk Susan Koster.

Drainageway No. 2 East / Update
City Engineer Peter Johnson provided a history and description of key drainages in Lafayette. He discussed options for improvements to Drainageway No. 2 East. Councilors directed staff to look at detention/recreational use options, cost sharing partnerships, land acquisition possibilities and storage ideas. Councilors agreed to schedule discussion of this Drainageway at their annual meeting with the Boulder County Commissioners.

Historic Preservation / Demolition by Neglect
Historic Preservation Board Chair Rebecca Schwendler and members Karen Lloyd, Saundra Dowling, Emmy Brouilette and Nick Nimmer met with Council to discuss the deterioration of older buildings in Lafayette. They pointed to structures that have deteriorated to the degree that they are no longer safe, effect nearby real estate values and in some cases are demolished. The group talked about options for educating and assisting owners in keeping their buildings in good repair.

Ajournment
Mayor Cutler adjourned the workshop at 7:05 p.m.
