2012 City of Lafayette's Residential Toilet Rebate Application

Application Submission Checklist – Must be completed and submitted by December 14, 2012.

Only the first 100 completed, received and approved applications will receive the toilet rebate.

I have completed the following:

☐ Ensure Lafayette utility account remains current.

☐ Obtain required written consents. Written consents may be required when applicant is not the Lafayette utility account holder or when the applicant is a renter or tenant and not the property owner.

☐ Record old toilet's gallons per flush on application form. This is to ensure your tank is 3 gallons per flush or more to qualify for this rebate.

☐ Purchase a WaterSense toilet and keep original receipt.

☐ Recycle your old toilet(s) at the City of Lafayette Service Center, 1700 Avalon Avenue by appointment only. Call 303-665-5588 x3701. The City of Lafayette is doing its part to divert these materials from the landfill by using a contractor that uses the ceramic from the toilets for clean road base.

☐ Complete all information on Residential Toilet Rebate Application form and attach/provide:

a. Rebate Application form.
b. Signature on Affidavit of Lawful Presence in the U.S. section of the application page.
c. Photocopy of driver's license or other valid identification as needed for Affidavit of Lawful Presence.
d. Provide original purchase sales receipt of qualified toilet.
e. Copy of current Lafayette utility bill.
f. Receipt of recycling old toilet (see recycling instructions).

Incomplete applications will not be processed.

☐ Make a copy of the entire application and receipts, and keep a copy for your records.

It is highly recommended to bring completed application and documents to turn in at the time of your toilet recycling appointment. If you are unable to turn in documents at this time you may…
