Dorothy McMillan Day
November 18, 2013

WHEREAS, our community is blessed with the presence of an older adult who has achieved 100 years of life; and

WHEREAS, Dorothy McMillan is a regular, committed member of Lafayette Senior Services programs and events demonstrating wisdom, grace, humor and a joyful presence to others while winning more than half the games she plays; and

WHEREAS, Dorothy has lived in the City of Lafayette for 5 years and has traveled, worked and lived throughout the world, listening to her wise voice and gracious manner is a privilege; and

WHEREAS, Dorothy McMillan worked as a Residential Social Worker for the Elderly in Living Centers in England and South Africa from 1964 to 1988 and earned a degree in Residential Social Work when she was 60 years of age, her experience and the efforts of a life-long passion for older adults motivates others; and

WHEREAS, Dorothy McMillan role-models commitment to services provided in this community for older adults, recognizing her connection to the community benefits us all; and

WHEREAS, adults who refuse to be defined by age are a reflection of the City of Lafayette's vision which the values the heritage and active life-style demonstrated by Dorothy McMillan; and

WHEREAS, the recognition of Dorothy McMillan is whole-heartedly supported by Lafayette Senior Services and the older adult citizens of the community;

NOW THEREFORE, the Mayor and City Council of the City of Lafayette do hereby proclaim November 18, 2013 as DOROTHY MCMILLAN DAY IN LAFAYETTE, COLORADO and call on all citizens to join with us in saluting and acknowledging the contribution of one of Lafayette's most vibrant members and her special contribution to the older adult population during November and throughout the year.

PASSED AND RESOLVED THIS 6TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 2013.

CITY OF LAFAYETTE

_____
Carolyn D. Cutler, Mayor

ATTEST:

_____
Susan Koster, CMC
City Clerk