Sing-And-Play Along

The second annual Sing-And-Play Along and potluck at the Center for Musical Arts is a new tradition in the Home for the Holidays lineup. The public is invited to join the free evening of holiday merriment at 200 E. Baseline Road. Sheet music and lyrics will be provided for attendees to sing or play classic carols. The Center for Musical Arts is asking for attendees to bring a dish to share in the potluck dinner from 5:00pm-7:30pm on Dec. 7. For more information, call 303-665-0599.

Spot the Elf

For the eighth year in a row, elf spotters of all ages are invited to join in on the month-long scavenger hunt that began on Novmeber 19. Find all the elves hiding in downtown shops, then return your completed booklet to the Bob L. Burger Recreation Center by December 19 to be entered for prize drawings.

"Best of Lafayette" Holiday Gift Basket Contest

Lafayette shoppers now have an additional incentive to shop locally this holiday season – the Best of Lafayette Holiday Basket Contest. From November 29 through December 31 consumers who save 4 receipts, each totaling $10 or more, from 4 different Lafayette businesses can submit them to receive a drawing entry for one of many fabulous Lafayette product-filled gift baskets. Each basket is valued from $300 - $500. Additional information and entry forms can be found at www.cityoflafayette.com/Invest
