

HUNGRY ALIEN INVASION

By: Dominic Wilson

One night, I was shocked
But the doors were locked.
And Aliens were eating my homework!
I sniggled and I figgled,
I was so scared and definitely did not giggle.
I had a stapler as my only weapon.
I used it to defend my precious body.
And teach those hungry aliens a lesson.
Then, all of them got up and did the floss.
But my stapler and I showed them who was boss.
They screamed and ran out of the house,
To their spaceship and grabbed a mouse.
I heard them say, "Bon appetite."

The end.
